

Fond du Lac band Verona Grove added to Chickenfest lineup

Post-Crescent East • March 9, 2009

Fond du Lac's pop-rock band Verona Grove has been added to the lineup for the Kiwanis Club of Darboy's sixth annual Chickenfest this summer.

This year's event will

Verona Grove will be the opening act for the festival's national headliner, which has not been revealed. Other musical acts will include Johnny Wad, Boxkar, Sonic Circus and Half Empty.

Festival highlights will include amusement rides, wing-eating and pizza-eating contests, chicken dance competitions, a pedal tractor pull, a large craft show, a parade, concessions and a free games tent for children. Fireworks will be provided by the towns of Harrison and Buchanan.

The Kiwanis also have made special arrangements with World Gate Entertainment in Orlando, Fla., to bring two unique shows to the area. "The Marionette" and "Bubble Nicolas," which have been performed at Disney World, Universal Studios and major theme parks around the world, will be performed on the outdoor stage.
